

Annual Student Professional Development Program (Career Skills) strives to assist students on the road to career success through developing their skills and by providing information on careers available to them after the graduation.

It includes the skills development, company and profession days, and resume writing tips.

Main skills to focus on – Entrepreneurship, Leadership and Effective communication skills (based on the list of NU graduate attributes).

Fall 2016

Date	Title	Target group
September	Resume/Cover letter	4 year students, graduate students
September	Resume/Cover letter for internships	1-3 year students
October	Leadership skills	2-4 year students, graduate students
October	Effective communication skills	2-4 year students, graduate students
November	Mock Interviews	2-3 year students, graduate students
November	Profession day: Engineering	Bachelor and Master students of relevant major
November	Profession day: Robotics/Chemistry/Biology etc.	All students of relevant major

Spring 2017

Date	Title	Target group
February	Resume/Cover letter	4 year students, graduate students
February	Resume/Cover letter for internships	1-3 year students
March	Mock Interviews	Senior students, graduate students
March	Job Search techniques	Senior students, graduate students
March	Profession Days: School of Humanities and Social Sciences Graduate School of Public Policy Graduate School of Education	All students of relevant major
April	Entrepreneurship skills	2-4 year students, graduate students